South Vietnamese Troops Push Into Mekong Delta

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Thousands of South Vietnamese troops fanned out across canal-laced rice fields deep in the Mekong Delta today and reported killing 89 Viet Cong in two days.

The large-scale search-and-destroy operation was launched Tuesday by ground troops, helicopter-borne units and the Vietnamese war's first combat parachute jump in at least two years.

The multiregiment force of Vietnamese infantrymen, paratroopers, armored cavalrymen and Popular Force units descended on a Viet Cong stronghold in Chuong Thien Province, 128 miles west-southwest of Saigon. American troops reportedly will be deployed in parts of the delta in the near future.

The paratroopers jumped from 33 planes — 13 U.S. Air Force transports and 20 C-47s of the South Vietnamese air force.

Vietnamese headquarters said the paratroopers ran into no opposition when they jumped. Spokesmen declined to say if any of the jumpers were injured. In a previous large-scale jump in April 1964, 40 per cent of the paratroopers were injured in jumping.

A Vietnamese spokesman said government forces killed 29 Viet Cong in the opening phases of the operation and by late today the enemy dead had risen to 89, with two prisoners taken and 58 weapons seized. Vietnamese casualties were termed "very light."

The spokesman said a government infantry battalion reported contact this afternoon with a Viet Cong force of unknown size. The outcome of the contact was not known at last reports.

The government sweep in the delta was the largest operation reported by the Vietnamese and American military commands.

U.S. headquarters listed only small, scattered skirmishes.

In the air war, long-range B-52 bombers made two raids on targets in South Vietnam today. One formation of the heavy bombers struck at a Communist base camp and suspected troop concentration 15 miles west-northwest of the northern city of Hue. Another wave hammered an enemy supply and training area 24 miles southwest of the central coastal city of Tuy Hoa.

U.S. air strikes against North Vietnam were hampered again Tuesday by bad weather, U.S. spokesman said, and American jet pilots flew only 54 strike missions, or about 150 individual sorties.

Most of the strikes hit at highways in the Dien Bien Phu area, in the western part of North Vietnam, and at storage areas and rail yards in the southern section of the country, the spokesman said.

American fliers also pounded the demilitarized zone Tuesday with five raids, hitting at North Vietnamese bunkers and troop areas in the once-neutral buffer area separating North and South Vietnam.

WEATHER

FEDERAL FORECAST
WINONA AND VICINITY — Snow ending late tonight, partial clearing Thursday. Locally a little colder Thursday. Low tonight 5-10, high Thursday around 20.

Official observations for the 24 hours ending at 12 m. today: Maximum, 23; minimum, 13; noon, 21; precipitation, ten inches snow.

Quiet End to Kennedy Book Dispute Seen

NEW YORK (AP) — The Kennedy book dispute could end quietly now after Mrs. John F. Kennedy's decision to withhold temporarily her suit to stop its publication, a family spokesman indicated today.

"I'm not going to guarantee it," he said, "but much points to a resolution. There has been progress and I think things could well be resolved noiselessly and soon."

Attorneys for Mrs. Kennedy and Harper & Row, publishers of William Manchester's "The Death of a President," an account of the Kennedy assassination, agreed Tuesday to put off hearings on her request for an injunction against the book until mid-January in expectation of a reasonably quick settlement.

The parties, ordered to appear at a State Supreme Court show cause hearing, said the arrangement would give them sufficient time for more discussion on passages to be trimmed from the 300,000-word text. Both sides characterized progress as "steady."

"That's great," said Manchester's wife, Julia, learning of the decision.

Tight Money Seen Easing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tight money, a major weakness in a generally strong economy this year, is easing rapidly but the potential home buyer still faces the highest interest rates on record.

But the home loan peak may be near, with more normal costs and greater availability of loans possibly just around the corner. Indications of the easing, and a prediction of further easing next year, came at a fast clip Tuesday, capped by an announcement from the Federal Reserve Board of an end to a policy begun last September aimed at restricting bank lending to business.

The board said current credit conditions made its September policy "inoperative."

Interest rates on mortgages generally lag behind the rest of the money market but one economist said today he expected a leveling off now and a possible downturn within the next few months.

The Federal Home Loan Bank Board reported Tuesday that interest rates on conventional home loans increased again during November but the slower over-all pace and a greater availability of funds indicated the peak may be near.

There were these other developments:

— Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor, in his annual economic outlook, predicted a "somewhat easier credit situation" during 1967 with an advance in home building from its lowest level since the end of World War II.

— The Federal National Mortgage Association reduced sharply the interest rates on its short-term discount notes, the second drop this month after an upward trend which began in September 1965.

PANTON, Vt. (AP) — A family of six persons died early today when flames leveled a two-story home in the Lake Champlain Valley here.

The victims were identified as Gerald Warren, 42; his wife, Dolores, 38; a son, Gerald Jr., 16; daughters Frances, 17, and Barbara, 14; and Warren's mother, Florence Warren, 74, of Syracuse, N.Y.

Cover May Total Foot By Morning

The heaviest snowfall of the year blanketed Winona today with a post-Christmas cover that threatened to approach the one-foot mark before its scheduled ending late tonight.

The storm, moving out of the southwest, started about 11 p.m. and by 7 a.m. had dumped seven inches on the city. Another three inches fell by noon and more was slated this afternoon and early evening.

Before the snowfall began 2 inches were on the ground already.

THE WIND was piling up drifts and cutting visibility to zero, threatening to tie up area traffic.

Authorities warned that only motorists having the most urgent business use the highways until the all clear is given.

A 10-mile-an-hour wind from the northeast with gusts to 25 was whipping the snow around, making driving conditions hazardous.

The North Central Airlines reported visibility one-eighth to one-fourth of a mile at noon with no airline traffic. The sky was overcast at 600 feet and the barometer 29.68 and falling. The airport high in the past 24 hours was the 21 reading at noon and the low 19 at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Chinese Set Off Another Nuclear Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. monitors have picked up evidence of a new Red Chinese nuclear explosion, sources said today. No further information was immediately available.

This would be the fifth Red Chinese nuclear test. The State Department had forecast a month ago that Red China would soon be setting off another nuclear blast.

12 Killed as Train Rams Stalled Truck

SEEK CRASH VICTIMS . . . A fireman searches through windows for additional victims after oil truck and self-propelled Boston & Maine train collided in Everett, Mass., early today with at least 12 persons killed. (AP Photofax)

EVERETT, Mass. (AP) — A Boston & Maine one-car diesel passenger train smashed into a fuel oil truck stalled with frozen brakes on a street crossing early today. Twelve persons died as flames engulfed the train and the truck.

Officials said there may have been up to 35 persons aboard the train. No definite check was available on the number aboard the local run.

Chelsea Fire Chief Herbert Fothergill said most of the victims were trapped in the train for 20 minutes until the fire was put out. He said firemen used their bare hands to extricate the passengers.

A fireman said one door was blocked "because there was a body lying on the other side." Policeman Ralph DeVito said he and officer George Stewart "tried breaking the windows with our night sticks but that wouldn't work. We couldn't open the door because there was this guy trying to get out the door with his head stuck through the window."

"We pushed him away but then there was so much smoke we couldn't see."

Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston said it received nine dead from burns and four injured. Whidden Hospital in Everett said it received two dead and 10 injured.

Chelsea Naval Hospital received one dead and two injured. One injured was taken to Chelsea Memorial Hospital.

Everett is an industrial community on the outskirts of Boston.

Bouley was treated for shock at Whidden and released.

The train, a local, left Boston's North Station at 12:01 a.m. bound for Rockport, Mass.

Police said the force of the collision carried the train and truck 100 feet down the tracks. The truck ruptured, spilling most of its 7,000 gallons of stove oil in a fiery wave.

The train tilted off the tracks and the truck overturned.

Police said the engineer of the train, Thomas Bagley, was killed.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — A Lehigh University professor, in a recently published book, says a nuclear-powered Soviet bomber may have made three undetected flights over U.S. territory two years ago.

In Washington, the Defense Department said, however, that it had "no knowledge of any such penetration nor of any such aircraft." A spokesman said the story "just doesn't make sense."

And a spokesman for the North American Defense Command at Colorado Springs, Colo., said the allegations made in the book "have no basis in fact. To our knowledge, there have been no known or unknown overflights of our territory during or since 1964."

The story was told by John Carroll in the book, "Secret Electronic Espionage." It says the alleged flights may have been made over San Francisco, Calif., New York, and Hawaii in 1964 with a payload equivalent to a 30-megaton bomb and a "phantom instrument box" to ward off radar detection.

Carroll, an industrial engineering instructor, said he was informed of the possible flights by a Korean expatriate in California who claims to be privy to the details of a 1964 meeting in Peking of the Red Chinese Ministry of Defense.

This meeting was supposedly attended by attaches of the North Korean Embassy and conducted by four officers of the Soviet Ministry of Defense.

The Soviets claimed their new airplane had evaded their own radar detection in 23 of 35 penetration missions over 10 major Soviet cities, Carroll states.

"This plane was, they explained, a nuclear-powered bomber with average speeds of 2,500 miles per hour and a top speed of 3,500 miles per hour."

"It had a ceiling of 65,000 feet and the capability of remaining aloft without refueling" for as long as 21 days.

Washington — Eugene P. Foley, who stepped down from his $27,000-a-year job as head of the economic development administration (EDA) in October, is stepping back up to another, better-paying job in California.
Foley said Tuesday that he will sign a 5-year contract later this month as president of a private economic research firm in the San Francisco area.
Foley declined to identify the firm or its specific location but said he will receive an annual salary of $55,000 plus stock options and a bonus.
The 38-year-old Wabasha, Minn., native will move from his Bethesda, Md., home with his wife and four children and begin his new duties Feb. 1.
Foley's decision to resign as assistant commerce secretary for economic development first was revealed Aug. 18 and was formally announced by the White House Oct. 6.
In the Aug. 18 story sources close to Foley cited two factors which prompted him to quit after only a year as head of the five-year, $3,250,000 program to pump new life into economically distressed areas of the country.
The sources said Foley was discouraged because the EDA's fiscal 1967 budget had been drastically cut back because of administration economy measures. And they said he felt the job, with its grueling schedule and frequent traveling, kept him from his family too much.
He also told friends at the time that he felt he was at an age when he should be establishing a better economic base for his family.
For the last six months there has been speculation in Washington that Foley would take over the badly disorganized Democratic national campaign committee. However, Foley said Tuesday "I haven't been offered it and I don't want it."

Boy Found Dead In Plastic Bag
DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — The death of Dennis Allan Ostrom, 14, who would have been 14 Tuesday, has been ruled accidentally by St. Louis County Coroner Cyril Smith. The boy's body was found Monday, a plastic bag tied around his head, Smith said glue fumes caused asphyxiation.

Playing Basketball, Man Collapses, Dies
BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — Robert W. Schumack, 38, Richfield, was playing in a basketball scrimmage Tuesday night with some other men and high school boys at the Lutheran Church of the Redemption gymnasium when he collapsed. He was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Private Nurses To Raise Rates
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — More than 200 private duty nurses who belong to the Minnesota Nurses Association will raise their rates by $8 a day as of Sunday, from $22 to $30.
The increase was voted in the fall. The MNA wage pattern also is generally followed by the state's 900 private duty nurses who do not belong to the association.

Prisoners Offer to Fight in Vietnam
HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) — Rep. Clarence D. Long, D-Md., says he has received a letter from 386 of the prisoners at the Maryland Correctional Institution, in which they offer to fight in Vietnam.
Long said the Department of Defense has turned down the offers until the prisoners' terms have been completed.

Cuban-Bulgarian Trade Pact Signed
MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A new agreement calls for a 22 percent increase in trade between Cuba and Bulgaria, Havana radio reports.
The report said Cuba will ship sugar and molasses to the Eastern European country and will receive in turn farm machinery, canned foods and other industrial products.

Eugene Foley Taking Private Research Job

Eugene P. Foley

WASHINGTON — Eugene P. Foley, who stepped down from his $27,000-a-year job as head of the economic development administration (EDA) in October, is stepping back up to another, better-paying job in California.
Foley said Tuesday that he will sign a 5-year contract later this month as president of a private economic research firm in the San Francisco area.
Foley declined to identify the firm or its specific location but said he will receive an annual salary of $55,000 plus stock options and a bonus.
The 38-year-old Wabasha, Minn., native will move from his Bethesda, Md., home with his wife and four children and begin his new duties Feb. 1.
Foley's decision to resign as assistant commerce secretary for economic development first was revealed Aug. 18 and was formally announced by the White House Oct. 6.
In the Aug. 18 story sources close to Foley cited two factors which prompted him to quit after only a year as head of the five-year, $3,250,000 program to pump new life into economically distressed areas of the country.
The sources said Foley was discouraged because the EDA's fiscal 1967 budget had been drastically cut back because of administration economy measures. And they said he felt the job, with its grueling schedule and frequent traveling, kept him from his family too much.
He also told friends at the time that he felt he was at an age when he should be establishing a better economic base for his family.
For the last six months there has been speculation in Washington that Foley would take over the badly disorganized Democratic national campaign committee. However, Foley said Tuesday "I haven't been offered it and I don't want it."

California Birth Rate Declines
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — California's birth rate dropped in 1966 to the lowest level in 25 years, the State Health Department reported today.
It was the third straight year the rate has fallen.
The department said that the total of 345,000 births in 1966 represented about 14 per 1,000 persons. There were 9,000 fewer births in 1966 than in 1965.
The rate hasn't been so low since 1941, when there were 17.3 births per 1,000.
The department gave no reason for the decline in births.

Boy Burned in Fire Succumbs
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — James Logsdon, 4, burned Sunday in a fire at the home here of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Logsdon, died Tuesday afternoon in a hospital.
The fire was reported to have started in a Christmas tree. Two other Logsdon children were injured when they jumped from a second story window to escape the flames.

Barry Goldwater's Mother Dead at 91
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Josephine Goldwater, 91, matriarch of a pioneer merchant family that produced a Republican candidate for president, died at her home Tuesday.
She outlived her husband, Baron, by 37 years.
Their three children included Barry Goldwater, who was twice elected to the U.S. Senate before losing the 1964 presidential election to Lyndon B. Johnson.
Another son is board chairman and chief executive officer of Goldwater Department

Lewiston Businessmen Push Highway 14 Work

Servicemen Unloading Struck Ships

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — About 5,000 Vietnamese continued their strike today and U.S. servicemen unloaded ships in the crowded harbor.
An American spokesman said the soldiers were handling only military cargo. The spokesman said 4,209 tons were moved between 3 p.m. Tuesday and 3 p.m. today, compared with a normal port tonnage of about 6,000 tons daily.
The spokesman, Bill Moyers of Petersburg, W.Va., told newsmen that there were no negotiations between the unions, U.S. Embassy officials, American military representatives and Vietnamese government officers.
He said the leaders of the three unions involved were negotiating among themselves.
The workers walked off their jobs to protest the dismissal of Vietnamese stevedores at the newly American constructed New Port, down river from the Saigon commercial harbor. The American spokesman said 288 persons were involved in the New Port dispute, but the unions put the figure at 600.
The spokesman said the workers were hired only temporarily to do work at New Port until American servicemen could teach Vietnamese to take over the job.
He said the workers have been offered other jobs.
The unions want assurance that the use of American servicemen to handle cargo will not spread, and they want other promises on wages and fringe benefits.
Because of the strike, U.S. servicemen are unloading military cargo at Saigon's main port as well as New Port. Spokesmen said 467 are on the day shift and 350 are working nights.

Viet Cong May Move Against Thailand Next
TOKYO (AP) — The Viet Cong said Tuesday that it will strike "well-deserved, counterblows" against Thailand if that country keeps helping U.S. war efforts in Vietnam.
The Viet Cong's liberation press agency charged that Thailand has allowed U.S. troops and hundreds of U.S. jet planes to be stationed there. It charged the planes "engaged in daily piratical raids over South and North Vietnam."
The commentary, broadcast by Hanoi radio, also accused Thailand of sending air force and navy units to South Vietnam to help "U.S. aggressors massacre the South Vietnamese people."
The Viet Cong accusation was a report of a Dec. 14 statement issued by the Commission for External Relations of the South Vietnam National Front for Liberation — Viet Cong — Central Committee.

Woman Dead of Fall Down Stairs
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Mrs. Olivia Lindstrom, 85, died Tuesday of injuries she suffered when she fell down basement stairs at home Monday night at the home of a son, Algot.

This made the highway 10 to 12 inches wider on each side, giving motorists a much better chance to get out of the way of approaching cars in safety, without danger of hitting a lip that might throw the vehicle back toward the center of the highway and result in a collision.
This danger is always there but particularly acute on icy and snowy highways.
"HIGHWAY 14 with its narrow lanes wasn't built for today's ever increasing traffic and for 65 m.p.h. speed limits," Siebenaler pointed out. "And you are expected to drive the speed limit, otherwise you slow up traffic and cause bottlenecks."
"Highway 14 is obsolete for these times and absolutely inadequate," Siebenaler declared, "as anyone who travels this main artery knows."
He thinks blacktop will make a satisfactory surface; snow and ice thaw on blacktop faster than on concrete, he added.
The Lewiston businessmen are asking everyone to mail letters this week to their legislators, the governor and the state highway department — this week so that early action can be taken in the legislature to pass a bond issue for the project.
"It's a political issue," Siebenaler said, "and all our legislators know we have to have this improvement. Maintenance programs are planned in advance, and nothing has been assigned to this absolutely necessary program."

INTERSTATE 90 generally parallel to Highway 14 will be delayed now that federal funds are being curtailed, but the interstate will be used principally by through travelers and trucks traveling long distances.
Other trucks, ambulances, persons going to the Mayo Clinic, to and from work, etc., still will be using Highway 14, the main highway between Winona and Rochester.
The improvement will help both the cities and all the cities and villages along the route, as all the people living in these places know, Siebenaler said.
He pointed out the heavy daily traffic both ways between the towns along the routes and the cities at both ends — persons who work in the cities and live elsewhere.
Action is needed now, says the committee, of which Gordon N. Jones and Les Ballard also are members.

At St. Mary's blacktop was laid over the concrete, and the shoulders were blacktopped, too.
About the same thing was done at the Arches. Siebenaler described it as an experiment in how the entire road could be done. Blacktop was laid thick enough to cover the outcropped gutters originally built to carry water off the highways into troughs and ditches. Crushed rock was laid on the shoulders.

START AT ONE END AND KEEP ON GOING until the job is done, said Siebenaler.
The deaths on this highway every year can be traceable directly to the narrow lanes with lips on the side, built over 30 years ago for much less traffic and 45 miles an hour, the speed limit then, Siebenaler said.
The loss of each of the several lives on this highway every year is worth more than the simple repair needed to make Highway 14 almost as adequate as a double-lane thruway, Siebenaler declared.

Wives Handle Money, Husbands Get Nervous

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — My Beautiful Wife and I are soon going to be celebrating our 31st wedding anniversary, or, as I have nicknamed it, the 31 Years War.

After 31 years, you don't agree on anything, not even what time it is, not even whether it's 31 years or 32. I have a stout conviction that it's 32 because it feels like it, but the B.W. claims she couldn't possibly have stood me for 32, and it's got to be 31.

There is a trend now for wives to handle the money, a trend that I'm sure was secretly invented by my wife.

It has one disadvantage, such as your wife getting the idea that the money you give her to handle, money which has been fried out of your very soul, is her money, and that you are trying to steal it from her life savings if you need a little to add to the pittance she calls your "allowance."

"Do you have a couple of singles?" I meekly inquire when we are about to embark on a mad evening's surge through the pleasure palaces. My $11.75 "fun budget" for the week is dwindling.

I am hoping to wheedle $2 to $3 extra.

"Just what are you trying to do?" the B.W. flares up. "Take all my money so that if we separate during the evening I won't have cab fare home?"

But then she softens suddenly.

"ALL RIGHT!" A scrooge-like glint is discernible in her lovely eyes. "I'll give you these two singles, and you give me your $5 bill."

With which she snatches the five that I was clutching on to, plotting to squander it during an insane fling in the fleshpots of Monte Carlo or the slot machines of Las Vegas.

Racking up a $3 profit for her!

As I reread the above, I am afraid I give the impression that I think that wife money-handlers are greedy personally. That is preposterous and unfair. The other day, for example, my B.W. out of a clear sky and clear head, said:

"YOU NEED a new overcoat. Here, go get yourself one." And

GREEN BERET

By Joe Kubert

BILL MERRILL'S
Something to Live By

Nowadays most everyone has a car, or is closely associated with someone, usually a family member, who owns good transportation. So varied and sophisticated is the taste on the part of car owners that what is a ridiculous concept to one, is a must to another. But the widest of concepts seems to come from the manufacturers themselves, based apparently on the theory, "If we build it, someone will buy it." But isn't $23,000 for an automobile a little steep? Well, sir, a foreign manufacturer is building a $23,000 auto, and people are buying it. This may not be "Something to Live By," but let's deal with the subject.

We talk about recessions, high taxes, and the ever-rising cost of living and declare it's difficult these days to make ends meet. On the other hand I suspect there never has been a greater trend toward the grandeur than in this era. The so-called middle-class is ever broadening as more and more people raise their standards of living manifested in things. Most people enjoy a comfortable home, television, a variety of radios, appliances of various kinds, often an expensive hobby, and a car, if not two or three. So fast are the changes in models of most any article that by the time one learns to use an item well, a new concept renders his purchase something less than the latest thing.

I'M SURE if there is an advantage to this madness for things designed to ease work, transport us, or grant us a special kind of fun or activity, it must include the fact that these desirable items tend to motivate us to earn better so that we can purchase according to our needs, wants, or whims.

As a boy I used to be warned of the danger of having eyes bigger than my stomach, meaning that I tended to load my plate beyond my capacity. Today I'm sure most of us know the danger of having wants that are bigger than our pocketbooks. Yet it amazes me when I stop to reflect the fantastic era this has become. The luxuries enjoyed by the ordinary man was considered fit for a king of the not too distant past. But with luxury becoming ordinary, manufacturers never cease to elaborate on the grandeur, giving the biggest splendor for things, something more to reach for.

FOR EXAMPLE, the $23,000 automobile I mentioned at the beginning of today's column. While it's not as big as a house, this price tag will buy a better than average abode and will either frustrate the Jones' or give them a king-size objective, that if achieved, will stop those persistent challengers who are forever trying to be their equal.

To show a three ton, 5-passenger car for $23,000 during the '30s in a local auto dealer's showroom would barely have made sense. It might have had the same effect in the 1930s as a castle with all the trimmings had in a state of paupers in Old Europe. The effect today, however, is one of comparison. Perhaps only one out of several million can afford it, but at least everyone has a car, and most folks have a nice one. With the price out of Mr. Ordinary's range, he merely says, "It's nice, but who needs it?"

BY THE way, if keeping up with the Joneses is a must with you, dear reader, don't move next to the Jackie Gleason's or the Frank Sinatra's. They each own one of these "it has everything" models, and by the time you swing a deal to get one like it, they'll probably be on a new kick.

And now for a final reminder — it's not so much what you have, it's how much you appreciate having it.

Voice of the Outdoors

Recreational Rivers Southeastern Minnesota with its vast Memorial Forest area was completely eliminated from the list of 13 Minnesota rivers recommended for inclusion in the proposed recreation river system for Minnesota, announced by Bob Herbst, acting Conservation commissioner.

A six months' study by Midwest Planning and Research, Inc. and the U.S. Geological Survey considered 24 rivers as possible recreational streams. The study was recommended by the 1965 legislature and financed with an appropriation from the Natural Resource Fund.

Two of the 13 rivers recommended to be part of the system are not deemed satisfactory for canoeing but are well suited for camping, sightseeing, fishing and other recreational activities.

Both the popularity of canoeing and interest in wilderness camping have increased sharply in recent years. Purpose of the recreational rivers plan is to make such rivers available for additional recreation use but preserve them from harmful exploitation which would destroy their scenic wilderness values.

It is estimated that there are currently between 12,000 and 15,000 canoes in Minnesota and many canoe enthusiasts from out-of-state visit Minnesota during the summer months.

Rivers recommended for the system are the Big Fork, Brule, Cloquet, Crow Wing, Kettle, Little Fork, Mississippi, Pigeon, Red Lake, Rum, St. Croix, St. Louis and Vermilion.

Certainly the Root, Zumbro and Whitewater rivers, all in the Memorial Hardwood Forest, close to centers of population yet running through areas just as wild as Northern Minnesota, deserve a recreational river rating. Probably Commissioner Herbst, or survey members of the Midwest Planning and Research, Inc., never heard of these rivers.

Reports Due

With the close of the December bow and arrow season Dec. 18, all legal deer hunting came to an end in Minnesota until next year. The Minnesota Conservation Department, game and fish division, asks hunters to return the hunter success report cards from their licenses as soon as possible so that game researchers can begin their annual analysis of deer kill and hunter success.

Information from the report cards is needed to provide the data on which to base hunting regulations and management measures.

Problem of Discipline for Mao Tse-tung

TOKYO (AP) — "The attitude of Communists toward any person who has made mistakes in his work should be one of persuasion in order to help him change and start afresh and not one of exclusion, unless he is incorrigible."

Chinese Communist Chairman Mao Tse-tung made this statement in 1938. Today 28 years later, Mao at 73 faces a dilemma: Should he continue to try to persuade his former her apparent, President Lin Shao-chi, and Communist party secretary Teng Hsiao-ping of the error of their ways? Or should he dismiss them as incorrigible and exclude them from the corridors of Chinese power.

The white-haired Liu and the short, Napoleonic Teng were subjected Tuesday night to the scorn of 100,000 young Red Guards at a rally in Peking at which Liu was branded the "Khrushchev of China" and the "boss of capitalism."

Wall newspapers in Peking disclosed that Liu and Teng abjectly confessed to anti-Mao sins before the party Central Committee last October, slightly more than two months after Mao had moved Defense Minister Lin Piao into Red China's No. 2 spot and banished Liu to No. 8.

The Red Guards question the sincerity of the two men. The sins to which Teng confessed in October were of recent date, revolving chiefly around his incorrect direction of the cultural revolution purge in June and July, while Mao was out of Peking.

Liu's admitted mistakes go back to 1946. Their number and seriousness raise the question: Was he forced on each occasion to indulge in self-criticism? Or has he, through control of the party majority, been able to defy Mao for two decades without being scratched?

It appears that in 1946 he favored a coalition government with Chiang Kai-shek, and a long period of peace for China. The implication is that Mao did not and sparked the belligerent wing of the party which welcomed, if it did not encourage, the breakdown of the talks over which the late U.S. Gen. George C. Marshall presided.

Former Catholic Diocese Executive Wed to Divorcee

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Robert G. Wesselmann, former chancellor of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Belleville, announced Tuesday he was married to a divorcee last fall.

The priest, who was ordained in Belleville 13 years ago, said upon leaving Belleville to live in Kansas City, Mo., he was married to Frances H. Burton, 36, of Belleville in a civil ceremony.

Wesselmann, 38, resigned as chancellor of the diocese Oct. 23. The position is the third highest in the diocese. At the time he said he was resigning for reasons of health.

"I am convinced that I am no longer called to live and serve in the priesthood as it is currently structured," said Wesselmann. He said he would work for a private firm in Kansas City, evaluating poverty programs in the city.

Body of Man Found Near Car

AMERY, Wis. (AP) — The body of Herbert Spaul, 55, rural Barron, was found Tuesday near his car in a ditch near Amery.

Spaul was a director of the Wisconsin Holstein Breeders Association and was president of Consolidated Breeders Association of Anoka, Minn.

His death raised Wisconsin's 1966 highway toll to 1,108, or 49 more than the previous high for an entire year.

Weather Chief Sees Big Gains In Forecasting

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States' weather chief predicted today that two-weeks-in-advance weather forecasts for any part of the world will be possible within 10 or 15 years.

They would predict the weather, fair or foul, for each day over that span, and could lead to enormous dollar savings.

Present-day capabilities of three-days-ahead forecasts even in the United States are pretty lousy, declared Dr. Robert M. White, chief of the government's Environmental Science Services Administration, which includes the Weather Bureau.

The improved prospect stems, White reported, from a recently launched international effort called the "World Weather Program" in which he said all nations, including Russia and Red China, are cooperating.

The long-range effort — planned by the World Meteorological Organization, a specialized agency of the United Nations — aims at marshaling sophisticated computers, weather-eye satellites and new concepts in atmospheric probing in a coordinated effort.

The program envisions not only improved and larger-range weather forecasts but possibly even breakthroughs toward weather control, Dr. White and several American associates said in reports to the 133rd meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

"It may be conservative to say," declared White, "that through a world weather program, our nation (alone) can realize economic benefits exceeding $1 billion annually. And, if weather and climate modification can be achieved on a substantial scale, the benefits to humanity will surpass all our imaginings."

He said that at present, weather hazards kill between 1,200 and 1,300 Americans, and cause more than $11 billion in agricultural and other economic losses every year.

Naftalin Will Seek 4th Term

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Mayor Arthur Naftalin, 49, announced Tuesday he will seek a fourth two-year term in the city election next June.

Naftalin, a former state commissioner of administration, said he decided to make an

DEAR ABBY:

Grandparents Want to Please

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I don't want to sound ungrateful, but why do grandparents always buy clothing for their grandchildren two and three sizes too big for them? Often these items are needed for use immediately, but they must hang in a closet or be put away in a drawer until the child "grows into them."

Many a lovely gift has been stored away and forgotten, and by the time the child can wear it, it's out of style. Mention this in your column, Abby. But please don't use my name.

MRS. X.

DEAR MRS. X: The reason grandparents buy clothing for children to "grow into" is obvious. It's a hold over from leaner years. However, gift-giving grandparents want only to please. So a word to the wise should bring the right size.

Abby

DEAR ABBY: While walking down the street yesterday, I saw a mailman emptying one of those sidewalk mailboxes. A woman was standing there screaming that she had just mailed a letter in that box and she wanted it back. The mailman said he was sorry but it was against the rules and he couldn't give it to her.

She yelled even louder that she could prove it was HER letter and she wanted it back. Then he tried to tell her what she would have to do to get it back, but she refused to listen — she stormed off in a huff. Now I would like to know how a person can get his own letter back after mailing it if the mailman won't give it to him.

INNOCENT BYSTANDER

DEAR INNOCENT: Make a duplicate of the envelope of the letter you want back. If it was going out-of-town, go to the main postoffice. If it was a local letter, go to the postoffice in the zone in which you mailed the letter and ask the postmaster for the appropriate form to fill out to retrieve your letter.

If your letter hasn't left the postoffice and you can identify yourself adequately, they'll give you your letter. If the letter HAS left town, they will telephone or wire the out-of-town postoffice (at your expense) and if it hasn't been delivered, they'll send the letter back to you.

But when it comes, you will have to go to the post-office and pick it up personally. This may sound like a lot of red tape, but it's not too much trouble for one who has mailed a letter in haste and wants it back.

DEAR ABBY: I telephoned an unmarried man-about-town and invited him to my home for a dinner party last Friday. He said he would be delighted to come, and before I had a chance to say another word, he said, "Do you mind if I bring Lulu?" (She is one of his many lady friends.) Well, I couldn't very well have told him not to bring her.

It spoiled my plan because the whole idea was to have him meet an unmarried girl friend of mine. My husband said I should have set him straight then and there. Would that have been proper? How should this have been handled?

SLOW THINKER

DEAR SLOW: You should have invited him this way. "If you are free for dinner on Friday, I would like you to be the dinner partner of a friend of mine." That way you wouldn't have to say—"but don't bring Lulu."

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BIG DECISION IN BID D.": I can't think of a worse risk for marriage. If you "won" him, then what would you have? A two-timing husband who pulled every trick in the book to be with his girl friend while his wife sat at home alone. You have no guarantee that he would treat you any better than he treated his first wife.

How has the world been treating you? Unload your problems on Dear Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal, unpublished reply, enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

early announcement to avoid uncertainty on his plans. He listed enactment of a new tax program for cities as one of his prime aims in the 1967 state Legislature. Naftalin, a Democrat, said a tax program should provide cities with funds to finance essential programs while at the same time providing tax relief for property owners. The city primary will be held May 2.

McCoy Job Corps Makes Business Impact

SPARTA, Wis. — The impact of the McCoy Job Corps Center on the economy of the area is found in statistics released by the center.

The center has 137 employees who have moved into the community and at least 75 are married. Of the employees who have taken up residences in the area 12 have purchased homes in Tomah, 11 in Sparta, and 102 are renting homes or apartments in Tomah, Sparta, and the surrounding rural communities.

ALMOST ALL are employees with managerial positions and others in the top echelon among the staff are from out of state.

The center has 428 employees and the November payroll amounted to more than $200,000. These include many local residents, who are employed as construction workers, secretaries, clerical help, food service personnel, educators, counselors, and safety patrol employees.

From May 2 to Dec. 1 vendors from La Crosse, Sparta and Tomah have contracted for business totaling $594,126. This includes $269 which went to La Crosse, $162,659 to Tomah and $126,987 to Sparta. This includes 123 different firms ranging from drug stores, service stations, sport shops, printers, hardware, office equipment, and flower shops.

PRACTICALLY all travel arrangements for Job Corps staff members are handled through La Crosse travel agencies. The total amounts to $35,000. Charter bus services for weekend recreational trips for corpsmen also is contracted locally.

There is also the $1.7 million contract to Kramschuster Construction Co. of Mondovi, which has many local sub-contractors in the rehabilitation phase of the Job Corps Center.

The Peter Nelson Construction Co. of La Crosse is engaged in a $681,269 new construction contract let by the Corps of Engineers and is not included in the $1.6 million contract issued to the Radio Corporation of America Service Co. (RCA) for operation of the Job Corps Center.

The University of Wisconsin has a sub-contract from RCA for handling the educational phase of the program.

NEW construction, scheduled for completion early in the spring by the Nelson firm, is well under way. This includes a new field house with a swimming pool, a cold storage warehouse, and another warehouse.

While the pay of corpsmen is only $30 a month this amounts to $12,000 for the 400 corpsmen, and most of their pay is spent locally.

Also after the first of the year the program to allow each corpsman $75 for purchase of casual civilian clothing will begin. These purchases are to be made in Sparta, Tomah and La Crosse, with the corpsmen choosing their own stores for shopping.

Copter Finds Marooned Family

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A Coast Guard helicopter, searching for a missing plane, brought back the unexpected: A family of six who had been marooned four days on an island after a storm wrecked their boat.

The helicopter ferried Harold Carty of Chowchilla, Calif., his wife and their four children, to a resort on the coast of Baja, California Tuesday.

Coast Guardmen reported the family had been spotted by an Air Force search plane. The island is about 75 miles south of the village of San Felipe in Baja California.

Planes were combing the area for a missing twin-engine plane carrying San Francisco importer Richard Y. Dakin, seven members of his family and a crew of two.

The plane, which disappeared on a flight to La Paz, Mexico, has been missing nearly a week.

Olson, Town of Arcadia treasurer, will collect taxes at the Arcadia bank every Tuesday and Thursday during January and the first two weeks in February from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and every day during the last two weeks in February.

Federal Income Tax Questions and Answers

(Editor's Note: This column of questions most frequently asked by taxpayers on Federal income tax matters with authoritative answers is provided by the Office of the District Director of Internal Revenue, St. Paul, Minnesota.)

Q — Is it true that all individual income tax returns will be processed by your computer system in 1967?

A — Yes. All individual tax returns filed for the 1966 tax year will be handled under the IRS automatic data processing system. The information on these returns will become part of the master file being compiled at the Revenue Service National Computer Center.

Q — If I give a check this year for a charitable donation, but the check is not cashed until 1967, in what tax year should I claim the deduction?

A — You should take the deduction for the year in which you give the check.

Q — Why does a corporation need the social security numbers of its stockholders?

A — This is required by law. Corporations must report dividend payments of $10 or more to the Revenue Service using the stockholder's social security number to identify the recipient.

Q — My 65th birthday is in December. Can I deduct my medical expenses for 1966 without reducing them by 3 percent of income?

A — Your age on the last day of the year is the key factor. If you are 65 or older on Dec. 31, 1966, medical expenses you paid during the year will be subject to the rules for those 65 or older. Thus, you need not reduce your medical expenses by 3 percent of income.

Q — Do you ever have to pay income tax on a gift you receive when it is in money?

A — Gifts are not taxable to the recipient. A large gift may, however, be taxable to the donor. A federal gift tax return is required to be filed by the donor when a gift or gifts to any one person during the year exceed $3,000 in value.

Q — I started a job where I have an expense account to cover travel costs. How do I handle this for federal tax purposes?

A — If you are required to account to your company for your expenses and your reimbursement does not exceed these expenses, then you do not have to report this on your income tax return. If the reimbursement exceeds your expenses, then the excess must be reported as income on your return. If your allowable travel expenses exceed your reimbursements the excess is deducted from gross income, and Form 2106 should be attached to your return. The form is available by writing a post card to our District office.

Q — I'm a waitress and part of my income is from cash tips. Will the tip income be included on my W-2?

A — Tip income you have reported to your employer for social security purposes will be recorded on your W-2 statement. If you received less than $20 in tips for any month and therefore did not report them to your employer, the tips will not be reflected in your W-2 statement. However, you must include these unreported tips in your income when you prepare your income tax return for the year. Form 4137 must be attached to your tax return if you received tips of $20 or more in any month and any of the amount over $20 was not reported to your employer.

Q — Is there any limit on what I can deduct for gifts to my customers?

A — Deductibility of gifts as a business expense is limited to a total of $25 to any one individual during the tax year. A husband and wife are considered one individual. For the $25 gift test. Gifts costing not more than $4 on which your name is clearly and permanently imprinted and which consist of a number of identical items distributed by you, such as pens or calendars, are not subject to the $25 rule.

ETTRICK FALSE ALARM

ETTRICK, Wis. (Special) — A passerby notified Ettrick firemen Monday at 12:30 p.m. when he saw what he believed was smoke coming from a building on the west side of Highway 53 here. It was steam coming from the Ettrick Co-op Creamery.

Three Injured In Collision Near Mabel

MABEL, Minn. (Special) — Three persons were taken by ambulance to Lutheran Hospital, La Crosse, following a two-car crash Tuesday at 1:50 p.m. two miles south of Mabel near the Minnesota-Iowa line.

Injured were Mrs. Kenneth Groth, 36, Decorah, Iowa, who was driving north, and Bonnie Thingvold, 16, and her brother, John, 14. Mrs. Groth was alone and Bonnie was driving the Thingvold car.

MRS. GROTH had taken her six children to the Highland Lutheran Church east of Hesper to practice for their Christmas program. As she drove north on what is known as the Hesper-Mabel blacktop she was proceeding to make a left turn into the Mervin Selness farm. Mrs. Selness is her sister and she planned to spend the afternoon with her.

Authorities said the Thingvold car crashed squarely into the left front of the Groth vehicle. The Thingvold car went out of control into the right or west ditch and traveled 80 feet before coming to stop and starting to burn. John fell out of the car when it came to a stop, witnesses said. Bonnie stayed in the car. The steering wheel was broken.

Mrs. Groth's car was spun around so that it faced east across the blacktop.

Mr. and Mrs. Selness heard the crash and called the Mabel fire department and the ambulance. The fire was extinguished in the 1956 Thingvold vehicle before flames could destroy it.

ALL THREE patients were reported in good condition this morning. Mrs. Groth received fractures of a kneecap in several places and a slight concussion. Surgeons were attempting to save the kneecap.

Bonnie received a bad knee cut and bruises, and John received head cuts. The Thingvold children live south of Hesper.

Mrs. Groth's car was an older model. Damage was extensive to both vehicles.

The accident was investigated by the Fillmore County sheriff's department.

Ike Returns to Gettysburg Home

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has returned to his snow-covered farm home and is planning a trip next week to his favorite sun spot, Palm Desert near Palm Springs, Calif.

The five-star general arrived Tuesday afternoon from Walter Reed Army Hospital where his gall bladder was removed Dec. 12. A spokesman at his office reported "everything is fine."

Eisenhower is scheduled to leave Jan. 4 for California. Meanwhile he plans to take it "easy."

Let's Not Sit Back and Relax

MOST OF US TEND to sit back and relax after election day, content to let political participation occur every other year.

We forget that the successful campaign requires no such moratorium and that seeds planted in late 1964 often made the difference between a winning and losing effort in 1968.

Indeed, unofficial returns indicate that no fewer than 70 congressional races were decided by less than five percent of the total vote cast.

This is up from the 1964 returns that gave us a total of 62 such cliffhangers and means, literally, that if one out of 20 voters in these districts had switched his vote there would be a different congressman moving into an office on Capitol Hill.

STILL, THESE figures do not take into account the fact that only 49.3 percent of the estimated 115.9 million Americans eligible to vote exercised this right so inherent to their country's system of government. And while this percentage is a record for off-year elections, this is more a commentary on the complacency of the past than an indication of the importance of the challenges that the future holds for this country and the free world.

There is a way that you can prepare yourself for participation in the political life of your area. In the last eight years more than a million of your fellow citizens have taken the nonpartisan Action Course in Practical Politics sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. These courses have been presented in more than 1,800 communities in all 50 states.

You can write or call the Winona Chamber of Commerce for information on how you may enroll in or even help organize such a course in your area or business firm.

And remember that in our system of government, participation by you, the voter, is the priceless ingredient.

OTHERWISE, A government of the nonparticipants and by the nonparticipants simply cannot be a government for the people.

Cheers for Jersey Supreme Court

(St. Paul Pioneer Press)

THREE CHEERS for the New Jersey Supreme Court.

This court gladdened the hearts of anyone who has ever been mystified by the fine print in his insurance policy by ruling that insurance companies could no longer include loopholes in fine print at the end of their policies.

The ruling involved a comprehensive homeowner's policy which in fine print at the end of the policy excluded from coverage bodily injury suffered by a domestic helper.

The judges concluded that it is illegal as well as unethical "to say one thing in big type and then to take it away in small type."

One judge commented "I get the impression that insurance companies keep the language of their policies deliberately obscure."

The court upheld a doctrine that holds that comprehensive personal liability contains general protection and that exclusionary clauses "must be conspicuous, plain and clear."

THIS IS A SENSIBLE, fair and valid doctrine. Insurance policies are complicated enough without fine print obstacles.

Packing Plants' Struggle for Survival

(Austin Daily Herald)

A REFLECTION OF the changing nature of competition in the packing industry is the recent announcement by Armour & Co. of its plans to close five plants.

Competition was once regarded primarily as existing between one company against other companies in the same industry. Today the struggle for continued existence is between individual plants against other individual plants. Each is measured on its ability to produce effectively—on the basis of efficiency, automated equipment, availability of livestock and proximity of markets. When a plant can no longer meet the competitive test, the company is induced to close it.

While Armour has now announced the five plants will be closed down, practically speaking, they have been in the gradual process of "closing" for some time.

THE MAIN ARMOUR plant at Sioux City, Iowa, closed in 1963 with the loss of 1,100 jobs. The company's beef plant stayed in operation but that now is being closed, too.

Another plant being closed is at Kansas City, Kan. It once employed 2,000 workers. The years reduced employment until now it is but 100.

The closing of plants, of course, has been typical of the packing industry generally, not just Armour. Chicago, once known as the "butcher of the world" be-

TODAY IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

More Involved Than Politics

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — There is more involved than mere politics in President Johnson's conference with nine Democratic governors at Austin, Texas. The Republican governors, moreover, have also just gotten together and formed an association with headquarters in Washington.

What is indicated is an approaching showdown in the relations between the federal government and the states of the union. They can no longer work at cross-purposes without producing widespread discontent and dissatisfaction. The time has arrived for cooperation between the states and the federal government, but nobody has yet produced a formula that the political partisans are willing to accept.

Obviously the federal government cannot do the whole job of building a better life for the peoples of all states, irrespective of whether their own taxpayers in each case can foot the bill. Nor has the problem of effective administration been solved.

IF THE GOVERNORS of the states as well as congressmen look upon federal money as a political "pork barrel," more and more protests from the electorate can be expected. Already the big-city bosses have become enmeshed in the anti-poverty programs, and local politicians have been demanding larger sums of money from Washington.

President Johnson in a single day's conference could by no means tackle the knotty questions that have emerged. The Republican governors, by establishing a "task force" in Washington, may be able to present some constructive proposals of their own. But real progress will not be made until there is agreement as to what the states should do and what the federal government should supply by way of funds or personnel in the various programs.

WITHIN THE past few years, the national government has by the withholding of funds, undertaken to discipline the states for failing to "desegregate" public schools. Quite a hassle is going on currently as to whether an executive department in Washington can operate virtually a blackmail system and deny funds to local agencies unless the bureaucratic ideas of federal officials on various subjects are accepted.

cause of its great packing center, has seen its industry reduced to nothing.

The changing pattern in the packing industry, with old plants closed and new ones constructed at other places, is not pleasant. Every town regrets the loss of an industry, whether large or small.

IT IS OBVIOUS that assurance for continued existence of a plant rests on how strong and competitive it can be in every aspect. A community can be both pleased and confident when its plant is exhibiting those characteristics.

Draft Experts Veto Voluntary Service Plan

By DREW PEARSON and JACK ANDERSON

WASHINGTON — The national advisory commission on selective service has just about finished its work and will soon report to the President.

This column has obtained a summary of its conclusions and can report that the proposal of Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara for a voluntary national service corps has been vetoed. The commission will also veto universal military training.

However, it will recommend a lottery to choose draftees from among equals. It will also recommend a continuation of student deferments, but with one important change, namely that, after graduation, students should be put back in the draft pool with the same chance of being drafted as any nonstudent. Thus if the student gets married, or even if he has children during the school period, he will get no deferment after graduation.

Here are the summarized conclusions which the commission is sending to the White House:

"1. The draft is necessary now and in the foreseeable future to meet the nation's defense requirements.

"2. An all-volunteer professional army is not realistic, achievable or in the national interest.

"3. Present policy of taking upper age groups first (24-25-26 years, etc.) should be changed, so as to take 18-19-20-year-old men first.

"4. A major administrative reorganization is needed so as to standardize policies throughout the nation and to make the draft a national program, nationally administered.

"5. A SYSTEM of random selection (a lottery) is the fairest way to select among equals. Example: If there are 100 men who are considered fully draft-eligible and only 50 are needed, then a lottery is the fairest method of selection. Note, however, that a lottery be used only to determine an order among equals, not as a method of drawing actual names 'out of a hat.'

"6. Will not recommend universal military training.

"7. Will not recommend a compulsory national service corps. While a voluntary national service corps might be desirable as a long-range national goal, it cannot be offered as a substitute for meeting the manpower needs of the armed forces.

"8. If student deferments should be continued, there is strong feeling that upon graduation the registrant should go back into the available pool so that he has the same exposure and risk as any nonstudent would have. A change in status during the school period (marriage, children, etc.) would not be a basis for further deferment upon graduation."

BOBBY Kennedy's denial that he authorized J. Edgar Hoover to engage in widespread eavesdropping is not likely to go down with some of the people who saw him during his trip to South Africa. When Bobby visited the South African student leader Ian Robertson, a critic of the South African government on Negro rights, Bobby asked Robertson whether he thought the place was bugged. Robertson replied that he was sure it was.

Whereupon the senator from New York jumped into the air and came down with a resounding thud. His host was flabbergasted. Kennedy explained that a jar would throw any bugging device off balance for 10 or 15 minutes.

The South African student leader was curious as to how Kennedy happened to be an expert on such matters.

"I was once attorney general," Bobby replied.

William Lee, Santa Ana, Calif.—Phil Brannan collected part-time pay from the Liberty Lobby at the same time that he served as administrative assistant to Rep. James Utt, R-Calif. Liberty Lobby is run by Willis Carto, who has deplored the defeat of Nazi Germany and has advocated the shipment of all American Negroes to Africa.

BILLY BUGG, Miami—The top racketeer in Florida is thought to be Santo Trafficante, Jr., who lives in Tampa but commutes to Miami each weekend. The timing of his visits coincides with the collections from the numbers rackets in the Miami area.

Powell's Pride Will Be Injured

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON — Rep. Adam Clayton Powell's pride appears to be in greater danger than his seat in Congress from the challenge being readied to bar him from the House when Congress convenes Jan. 10.

Even if he is denied the right to be sworn in with his 434 colleagues — as seems most likely — there is almost no chance he will actually be excluded from membership at that time and his Harlem district declared vacant.

To Your Good Health

His Ankle Swells From Gout

By J. G. MOLNER, M. D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Last week my husband's ankle swelled suddenly, as it had twice before. We thought it was from an old injury, but the doctor says it is gout.

Can one ever be cured of it? How important is diet? Can the disease be controlled or will it worsen with age and cripple him? I gather that gout comes from immoderate eating and drinking, but we always have three ordinary meals a day and he drinks nothing stronger than beer. — MRS. R. O.

Nobody is ever cured of gout, but with modern drugs it is possible to control the disease so well that patients go for years without another attack.

There used to be a belief that immoderate eating and drinking caused gout, but this now is found to be in error. Gout is an inability of the system to dispose of enough uric acid, so it forms in crystals in the joints or elsewhere, and can be very painful.

It is true that too much rich food as well as alcohol can bring on an attack, but that is quite different from causing the disease.

Modern drugs keep the uric acid level low and thus protect the patient from attacks.

With this type of treatment, you need have no fear that gout will turn into a crippling disease. If a patient is reasonably moderate in his eating, that is adequate. Extremely rigid diet no longer appears necessary for most gout patients.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please explain why I cannot wear costume jewelry or metal garters without breaking out with a weeping rash. — MISS E. K.

It is an allergy of a type called contact dermatitis. There are different kinds of allergies. Some folks have hay fever. Some have food allergies. Still others break out because of contact with certain metals. Nickel is a common one, but other metals may be involved.

Sometimes a clear plastic spray or lacquer, to prevent contact of jewelry (or garters) with the skin, can prevent the trouble. An outstanding case of nickel sensitivity was in a man whose finger tips broke out in a raw rash. The trouble was traced to jingling coins in his pocket. When he took care not to have any nickels there, his trouble stopped.

Dear Dr. Molner: What causes erysipelas? Does it have any connection with the nerves? Is it contagious? — MRS. M. T.

It is caused by one strain of the streptococcus germ infecting the skin and underlying tissues, so the surface appears shiny and swollen, pink or red, and tender.

Erysipelas also has a tendency to recur, but it is not particularly contagious, except to women at the time of childbirth. The explanation appears to be that a person in good health fights off this germ fairly easily; a vulnerable person, however, can become ill, sometimes desperately so.

WHAT IS expected to happen Jan. 10 is that Powell will be asked to stand aside until a special committee investigates the case against him and makes a recommendation. That's what was done in the case of the much-married Mormon, and Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-Calif., who plans to make the Jan. 10 challenge, says he is thinking of following the same course.

It could take six months or a year for such a committee to complete its work. Meantime Powell would be legally a member of the 90th Congress, entitled to his $30,000-a-year salary, his office staff and his free mailing privileges. All he would lose is his right to vote.

If the committee should recommend that Powell be barred, approval by the House would cut off his salary and vacate his seat. But by that time Powell may have purged himself of the contempt of court in New York that is largely responsible for his current difficulties.

BECAUSE HISTORY, tradition and precedent all tend to blunt the effectiveness of the challenge to Powell's seat, some of his opponents also plan to try to take away his chairmanship of the Education and Labor Committee.

This could be accomplished by a majority of the Democratic members at their caucus Jan. 9. Rep. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla., who led the fight to reduce Powell's powers as chairman last session, is planning the strategy for having him ousted.

A major weapon in the move will be the forthcoming report of a House Administration subcommittee that investigated the payroll and travel expenditures of Powell's committee and found that somewhere between 75 and 100 airline trips, paid for as official trips by staff members, were taken by someone else.

POWELL'S preference for jollying in the sun in the Bahamas instead of facing the subcommittee's questioning will be used to support the charge that he is unfit to continue as chairman.

Precedent is also against deposing committee chairmen, and the success of this effort, as well as that of the seating challenge, lies almost entirely with Speaker John W. McCormack. Although the speaker has kept out of the fight up until now, his past record of kindness and compassion toward erring members and his love of the House and its traditions would indicate he will seek the softest possible solution for the Powell problem.

PLAN REUNION ... Preliminary plans for a possible 50th class reunion of Winona Senior High School graduates of the class of 1917, were made Tuesday at a noon luncheon. Pictured, from left, are Miss Dorothy Leicht, Glenn Hicks, Winnetka, Ill., Mrs. A. M. Oskamp Sr. Mrs. M. H. White and W. W. Tolleson. Mr. Hicks is planning a special trip to Minneapolis to encourage class members, Al Sheehan, Ben Curtis, class president, Herbert Bockler and Edward Keyes to begin preparations for the reunion to be held in June. They hope that other members of the class will express their desire for the anniversary reunion, the group said. They met at Linahan's Inn.

Two Dead in Lake Placid Hotel Fire

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP) — A pre-dawn fire destroyed part of the famed Marcy Hotel in this Adirondack resort today, and firemen said two employees were missing. The estimated 475 guests escaped safely, but the owner and four employees were injured.

Three other employees whom police had presumed dead finally were located in the village. The injured, suffering mostly from smoke inhalation, were reported in fair condition at Placid Memorial Hospital. The owner, Jack Davis, 52, suffered a minor cut on the left leg.

Fire officials said the fire broke out in the kitchen and was confined to the three floors of the southern wing of the 70-year-old structure, which was basically wooden but had been remodeled with brick, stone and glass.

The flames swept the kitchen, a dining room, swimming pool and employees' quarters on the third floor. Firemen from several communities controlled the flames in about an hour and a half and prevented them from reaching guests' rooms in the five-story main section. The guests, numerous because of the current winter sports, fled in their nightclothes in freezing weather, and sought rooms in other hotels.

The Pentagon acknowledged Monday night that attacks on military targets have inflicted civilian casualties but said "it is impossible to avoid all damage" to residential areas dotted with military targets.

The officials said it is necessary to bomb military targets in order to raise the price to North Vietnam of aggression against South Vietnam and to save lives of Americans and others fighting the Communists.

The Pentagon response was to a story by Harrison E. Salisbury, an assistant managing editor of the New York Times, who reported from North Vietnam that he saw "block after block of utter desolation" on one town and learned of 89 civilian deaths in another.

The implicit declaration by the U.S. officials that there is no review of bombing policy pending appeared certain to be challenged soon after Congress convenes Jan. 10.

Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and critic of U.S. policy in the war, plans hearings on the subject. Fulbright aides said Tuesday they have no doubt he will call on Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk for detailed reports on the bombings.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, however, supported the Pentagon contention that any civilian casualties were unintentional.

"Is there any place in the world where there are no civilians?" Eisenhower asked newsmen as he left a hospital. "I know U.S. operations are aimed exclusively at military targets but unfortunately there are some civilians around these targets."

The Rev. David M. Gracie, rector of Detroit's St. Joseph Episcopal Church and a committee member, said last week that the sponsors "are not advocating draft dodging."

The Rev. Mr. Gracie said the meeting was a public forum designed to let draft-eligible youth know where they stand with the law if they plan to oppose the draft with other than conscientious objector status.

A reception was held in the church parlors with Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Mordal, Lanesboro, Minn., hosts. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Mel Landin, George Goyette, La Crosse; Jerome Housker, Ervin Foltz, Robert Pederson, Paul Housker, Herb Wiger and the Misses Lisa Rolfhus, Lynn Egge, Cedar Rapids; Marybeth Housker, Lynn Roldenberg, Becky Hanson, and Peggy Hanson.

The bride, a graduate of Mabel High School, attended Winona State College and is a hematology technician at St. Mary's Hospital, Madison, Wis. The groom graduated from Waterloo (Wis.) High School and served for four years in the U.S. Air Force. He is presently employed in the Wisconsin State Department, in Madison, where they will make their home.

Spellman Firm in Call For Victory in Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman stood firm today on his call for nothing less than U.S. victory in Vietnam despite reports that the Vatican was upset by his remarks.

"Whatever I said, I stand by it," the 77-year-old Roman Catholic archbishop of New York told a newsmen before ending his Christmas visit with U.S. servicemen in Vietnam and flying to the Philippines.

Although the Vatican would make no official comment, unofficial sources there said the cardinal's statement that anything less than victory in Vietnam "is inconceivable" caused concern and perplexity. These sources said such declarations seemed to be out of keeping with the efforts of Pope Paul VI to encourage a negotiated end to the war.

The Soviet government paper Ivestia charged the cardinal's "militant sermons" were "in sharp dissonance with recent statements of Pope Paul who appealed for an end to the bloody killing." North Vietnam denounced the cardinal as a "reactionary under a priest's cloak" and charged he had "loudly clamored for the intensification of the U.S. aggressive war."

The cardinal's statement, made during a Christmas Eve sermon, also referred to the Vietnam fighting as a "war for civilization."

En route to Saigon's Tan Son Nhut Airport today, he told patients at the U.S. Army's 3rd Field Hospital: "All America should be grateful to you. The men in the armed forces have saved our civilization in past years. You are preserving it."

Cardinal Spellman, who is Roman Catholic military vicar of the U.S. armed forces, was accompanied by U.S. Army physicians throughout his six-day visit. He declared several times this was his last trip abroad to visit U.S. servicemen at Christmas. It was his 16th consecutive Christmas visit to the forces overseas.

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President and Mrs. Johnson invited 13 teen-agers to their ranch home to emphasize youth's work in sprucing up America.

The occasion was an 11:30 a.m. EST ceremony for the President to designate 1967 as Youth for Natural Beauty and Conservation Year.

Young people who have been working on hometown natural beauty and conservation projects were invited. Their expenses were paid by organizations they represent such as 4-H Clubs and Boy Scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. Crosby

Wedding Unites Cheryl Housker, Jack G. Crosby

MABEL, Minn. — The marriage of Miss Cheryl Rae Housker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Housker, Mabel, and Jack G. Crosby, son of Mrs. Loraine Crosby, Madison, Wis., took place Dec. 10.

The evening ceremony was performed by the Rev. Bruce Boyce in the Mabel First Lutheran Church. Miss Hazel Shirven was organist and Miss Maryellen Breitsprecher, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was soloist. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length white velvet gown trimmed with white mink fur on the elbow-length sleeves. A cluster of white satin roses held her finger-tip veil and she carried a cascade of white roses. Mrs. Lavaghn Rolfhus was her personal attendant.

MISS NANCY Housker, Minneapolis, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. The Misses Joann Breitsprecher, Madison, and Judy Ness, Minneapolis, were the bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in floor-length red velvet dresses and carried white mink muffs centered with sprays of holly. Dave Schaefer, Waterloo, Wis., was best man. Don Havlik, Waterloo, Wis., and Larry Cole, Madison, Wis., were groomsmen. Dave Housker and Don Harkness, La Crosse, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a green lace dress and the groom's mother chose a green suit. Their corsages were red roses and carnations.

A RECEPTION was held in the church parlors with Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Mordal, Lanesboro, Minn., hosts. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. Mel Landin, George Goyette, La Crosse; Jerome Housker, Ervin Foltz, Robert Pederson, Paul Housker, Herb Wiger and the Misses Lisa Rolfhus, Lynn Egge, Cedar Rapids; Marybeth Housker, Lynn Roldenberg, Becky Hanson, and Peggy Hanson.

Detroit Holding Seminar on Dodging Draft

DETROIT (AP) — An interfaith seminar on how youth can avoid the fighting in Vietnam opens at Detroit's Central Methodist church today.

Sponsored by a group calling itself the Committee of Citizens for Peace in Vietnam, the day-long meeting includes workshops for draft-age youth on various aspects of the Selective Service System.

A rally protesting U.S. involvement in the Vietnam war will climax the meeting.

"We expect 7 to 15 people at each of the seven workshops," said the Rev. George Colman, a member of the committee and a Presbyterian minister.

The Rev. Mr. Colman said he had received calls from people who said they planned to attend the rally and "find out just what these kids are doing with their draft protests."

"This should provide some opposition comment," he said.

The Rev. David M. Gracie, rector of Detroit's St. Joseph Episcopal Church and a committee member, said last week that the sponsors "are not advocating draft dodging."

More Federal Foods for School Lunches

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said Tuesday the school lunch program will receive substantially larger quantities of government-donated foods during the second half of the 1968-69 school year than during the first half.

He announced two million pounds of food, costing the government $62.8 million will be delivered to schools during January and February. These foods include butter, beef, frozen chicken and canned grapefruit.

These foods are in addition to substantial quantities of other meats, raisins, pears, dry beans, dry milk, rice, shortening, flour, corn meal and grits, and rolled wheat and oats.

Top Sources Say Bombing Is Necessary

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top-level U.S. sources say there is no point in changing U.S. bombing policies in North Vietnam despite controversy surrounding a Pentagon admission that some civilians have been hit.

The officials said it is necessary to bomb military targets in order to raise the price to North Vietnam of aggression against South Vietnam and to save lives of Americans and others fighting the Communists.

The Pentagon acknowledged Monday night that attacks on military targets have inflicted civilian casualties but said "it is impossible to avoid all damage" to residential areas dotted with military targets.

Substandard Equipment On Many Cars

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — State highway patrolmen say a check of 4,455 cars since mid-December disclosed 1,730 instances of substandard equipment.

Maj. Charles Litkey of the state patrol said Tuesday that citations were issued to 25 drivers for such violations as lacking a driver's license or vehicle registration, and that 957 tickets were issued ordering correction of equipment.

The 1,730 instances of improper equipment include some cars having more than one violation, he said. Most of the equipment violations concerned brakes, horns, directional lights, tail lights and stop lights, he said.

Gov. Warren P. Knowles asked the State Highway Patrol to conduct spot checks throughout the state in an effort to slow the state's record-setting traffic death toll.

The patrol, Litkey said, is making checks in rural and urban areas, and is employing roadblocks in many instances. Officers are working overtime, he said, producing an additional 6,400 man-hours of enforcement requested by Knowles.

Eleven cars normally used by supervisory personnel have been added to the spot check campaign, and will be returned to the supervisory staff after the New Year's holiday period, Litkey said.

3 Iowa Prison Refugees Caught At Albert Lea

ALBERT LEA, Minn. (AP) — Three inmates who escaped Tuesday from the Iowa Women's Reformatory at Rockwell City were captured here early today and held for Iowa authorities.

Reformatory officials identified the three as Beth Yolland, 34, Irene Shipley, 42, and Judy Thompson, 29, all of Des Moines and said they fled the institution in a car belonging to a reformatory employee.

Officers said the three were picked up at an Albert Lea motel.

Budget Cut or Tax Increase Faces Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Gov. Warren P. Knowles must slash as much as $150 million or more of state spending requests this week or face at least a tax increase he has tried to elude.

The governor has sealed himself inside the executive mansion to work with fiscal aides from dawn past dusk on the $1.2 billion rough draft of the budget he will offer to the 1967 legislature.

There is evidence that the secret administration estimates of how much tax revenue Wisconsin will have available to bankroll the budget will fall short by $125 million to $245 million.

Knowles has pinned his public hopes repeatedly on the prospect that a booming economy would bring in enough money to avoid the first major tax increase in 10 years. But now the boom has gone out of that boom.

The spending requests handed the GOP governor are 35 percent above the present state budget. The most optimistic estimates on how much the economy will grow next year stop below 8 percent.

Knowles' staff has labeled the normal holiday lull between Christmas and New Year's Day as "decision week" as the governor pares and prunes the spending programs.

Stated starkly, the decision that must be made pivots between a tax hike or heavy slashes in proposed spending.

New Year's Eve has become a time to gather together to "ring out the old and ring in the new". Food and beverage play a big part in this celebration. The fun of snack foods so often served with the beverages is their variety and interesting food combinations.

Hot hors d'oeuvres are a new and clever snack. The electrically heated serving tray has made it possible to keep these foods hot all evening long. Bite sized pizza and filled pastes are fun to make because almost anything goes. Top the tomato sauce pizza with shrimp, anchovy, ripe olives and cheese, sausage or pepperoni or almost anything you have in the refrigerator. The paste is made by using pie crust that is cut with the top of a juice glass and filled with a minced chicken, barbecued pork, ground browned beef with onion, sauerkraut, or cream cheese and chives. Fold the crust over to shape a half circle. Pinch the edges together to prevent the filling from leaking during baking. Place these little pastes on a baking sheet and brown in a medium oven, 350° F. If you like a shiny golden brown, brush each crust with eggwhite before baking. These should be served hot.

If you are lucky enough to have a hibachi stove, your guests will enjoy roasting cocktail winners and cocktail sausages over the hot coals in the little iron stove. If you are worried about your guests just sitting around, you will find the fun of cooking their own winners is contagious and everyone becomes involved in a gay New Year's Eve.

Five States Had No Holiday Traffic Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Death bypassed the highways in five states during the Christmas holiday weekend, and traffic safety officials credited the achievement to intense driver education, increased police patrols, bad weather and the spirit of Christmas.

There were no traffic deaths reported in Idaho, Alaska, Nebraska, Delaware or Rhode Island.

Latest figures show that 534 persons lost their lives in the three-day Christmas weekend.

Last year 720 persons were killed during Christmas observance. The 1966 Thanksgiving four-day holiday set an all-time record for any holiday period when 749 persons died.

A.E. Perkins, head of the Idaho State Police, gave credit to a pre-Christmas campaign which urged parents to have their children take more time reaching home for the holidays and asked partygoers to do their drinking after their driving.

"We had some inclement weather and that slowed people down," he said. "And I think the spirit of Christmas prevailed a little. People are getting to be a little better drivers, a little more courteous."

Several populous states recorded sharply reduced death tolls for the weekend.

Last year 50 persons were killed in Ohio. This year's toll was 34. Twenty-four persons died in New York State compared to 35 in 1965.

The toll increased in two states. Sixty-one persons died in California this Christmas weekend compared to 54 last year. In Texas 48 persons died in 1965 Christmas accidents and 52 were killed this year.

Although the 1966 Yule death toll was far under last year's total, it was well above the 301 deaths counted in an Associated Press survey for a nonholiday weekend, Dec. 9-12. The National Safety Council had estimated 850 to 750 persons would be killed.

Daughter of Eleva Residents to Edit Montana Weekly

ELEVA, Wis.—Miss LaVonne Mattson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. Mattson, Eleva, will become managing editor of the Sidney, Mont., Herald Jan. 3.

The Herald is Montana's largest weekly newspaper. Sidney is a city of 4,600 about 50 miles southwest of Williston, N.D. LaVonne has been news editor of the Cavalier County Republican, Langdon, N.D., since last December. She is a graduate of Eleva-Strum High School and attended Eau Claire State University. She was a reporter on the former Minneapolis Daily Herald, society editor of Tri-County Publications, Columbia Heights, Minn., and associate editor of the Berlin, Wis., Journal.

The Rh blood factor is inherited.

King of Tiny African Nation Under Arrest

MASERU, Lesotho (AP) — The prime minister of the world's second youngest nation put his king under house arrest at midnight Tuesday after months of feuding over their respective powers.

Prime Minister Leabua Jonathan ordered King Moshoeshoe II confined to his palace in Maseru following a day of disorder in which six persons were killed and more than 100 arrested. The dead included a police inspector.

Jonathan, Lesotho's premier chief, and Moshoeshoe have been disputing the division of political powers made when Lesotho, formerly Basutoland, gained its independence from Britain Oct. 4. The tiny African nation has an area of 11,716 square miles, a population of about 880,000 and is surrounded by South Africa.

Violence occurred Tuesday after Jonathan's government set up roadblocks to search people on their way to a gathering that the 28-year-old king was to address at Thaba Bosigo, 15 miles from Maseru.

Cuba Will Let Americans Leave

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cuba reportedly has agreed to let 2,700 U.S. citizens leave that country. The first arrivals could fly to New Orleans today, sources indicate.

The State Department is making no immediate comment but is known to have been negotiating the matter for weeks with the Castro government through the Swiss Embassy in Havana. There are an estimated 800 U.S. families in Cuba, many headed by persons of Cuban descent born in the United States.

There have been, however, past reports that repatriation might be under way and it has not developed.

Good Advice for Lagging Student

By LESLIE J. NASON, ED. D.
University of Southern Calif.

Are you a high school or college student having unexpected difficulty with a course or two? If so, you are not alone. It happens to a great number of students! But if you are headed for a "D" or an "F" grade, it is small consolation that you have lots of company in your situation.

You may blame lack of study, but it is for more probable that you studied the wrong way. Let's suppose your difficulty is with a science course. If you are not studying paragraph by paragraph and idea by idea — with insistence on complete understanding — you are studying the wrong way.

I remember my own frustration in trying to apply to the study of economics the techniques of study which made me an "A" student in mathematics. I have since discovered that in economics, a successful student tries to understand not only principles, but also tries to find illustrations or examples of their application.

THE SUCCESSFUL student does this both in studying the text and in listening in class. He centers his thoughts on WHY the illustrations presented should be associated with the corresponding principles.

If you switch to this approach, you will get results. It's not too late. The time spent in this type of thinking about economics will be far more effective in getting to understand the subject than the mere memorization of facts and principles.

Also, don't stubbornly go on studying and preparing for tests in the same manner you have been doing or you will probably continue to get below-average grades. You may be resisting changes in your study procedures because you do not know HOW to go about becoming better students. My advice to you is: Take immediate action to review your plan of study for any course not going well. Talk with more successful students regarding their learning procedures for the course. Then, before you talk to your instructor, do something!!

Make an heroic effort to salvage each course, using the following steps:

1. Review the course from the beginning and get an over-all picture of what you have covered.
2. Make your review in a period of two or three days. It may take only 10 or 20 hours, a small investment in time considering the value of the course in dollars.
3. Make a record of your work in a new notebook, including problems, sketches, maps, outlines according to the course you review. Indicate any ques-

EVERYONE has a great deal to say about the future of his own health. Unfortunately, many of us have adopted the "What will be — will be" attitude when it comes to thinking and caring for our physical appearance. Granted, it takes work and a strong will to keep ourselves "trim" or at a relatively high level of physical fitness, but it can be done. There are several factors which determine whether or not a person will experience arteriosclerosis, heart attack or stroke; they are:

1. Overweight.
 2. Elevated blood cholesterol level.
 3. Elevated blood pressure.
 4. Excessive cigarette smoking.
 5. Heredity.
- Heredity cannot be changed, but you can influence the other factors and thereby lessen your chance of being a victim of cardiovascular disease.

These suggestions always work for those who take the bull by the horns and conscientiously put them into action. They will work for you, too.

Until the 1300's, people commonly wore rings on their thumbs.

Father Shoots Daughter, 7

GRIFIN, Ga. (AP) — Denise Marie Sanders, 7, ran up to her father and said teasingly, "Shoot me, Daddy."

A few hours later she was dead. The gun her father had held was not a weapon loaded with blanks, as he had believed, but a similar gun, loaded with live ammunition.

Sheriff Dwayne Gilbert said the coroner ruled that the slaying was an accident, and no charges will be filed.

The holiday tragedy occurred Monday at the home of Chester Wright, where Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Sanders of Griffin, and their daughter, Denise, were visiting.

Spalding County Deputy Sheriff Gray Pinson said Wright had two 22-caliber pistols, one loaded with cartridges and the other with blanks.

Sanders picked up the live ammunition weapon, thinking it was the one with blanks, the deputy said. The girl ran to her father and said, "Shoot me, Daddy," Pinson related. Wright, realizing that Sanders had the wrong gun, shouted and attempted to grab Sanders' arm, said Pinson. But the gun discharged, the bullet hitting Denise in the chest.

The girl was taken to a hospital but efforts to save her were futile. She died a few hours after the shooting.

Special Trip For Dying Girl

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — A blonde girl with sparkling eyes romped in the land of make-believe and personally met the Three Little Pigs.

Susan Dewey, 6, a leukemia victim from Grand Rapids, Mich., was given VIP treatment Tuesday at Disneyland.

She was met at the gate by the Three Little Pigs and a human-sized cartoon character named Goofy, who — in the fantasy land of children — is a talking dog.

She viewed most of the sprawling land of fantasy from a wheelchair. Susan doesn't

Election Dispute Is Finally Settled

MONTEVIDEO, Minn. (AP) — Tom Johnson of Milam was elected a Chippewa County commissioner Tuesday, concluding a disputed election which took 49 days to decide.

Johnson received 579 votes to 580 for George Burns, also of Milam, in the Nov. 8 election. A recount resulted in 581 votes for both candidates.

District Judge Clarence A. Roloff of Montevideo ruled that the seat should be decided by a flip of the coin. Neil Miller, Chippewa County auditor, flipped the coin which finally produced a winner Tuesday.

have much strength. Doctors say she may die from the blood disease within a year.

"There were doubts she would be here to celebrate Christmas," said her father, George Dewey, a used car salesman.

Susan arrived Monday night with her parents and sister, Kathie, 4, after spending Christmas at home.

The trip was financed by a Los Angeles businessman, who asked to remain anonymous. "She had a wonderful time," said Mrs. Dewey.

Federal and State Tax Blanks Ready

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service said Tuesday it has begun mailing 1966 income tax forms to about 65 million individual taxpayers. The distribution is scheduled for completion Jan. 5.

Taxpayers will receive in the mail copies of the same type form they filed for last year's taxes. About 43 million will receive the 1040 long form and instructions while 22 million will get the 1040A short-form package.

The IRS said copies of the forms will be available at its offices and many post offices and banks throughout the country shortly after the first of the year.

About half of the forms — those processed through IRS computers this year — will include attached labels with the taxpayer's name, address, and Social Security number. The IRS urged taxpayers to use these labels on the form they eventually file with the government to insure proper identification.

State Tax Returns Go Into Mail

ST. PAUL (AP) — The State Tax Department says next year's income tax returns will go into the mail this week—just in time to race the Christmas bills into Minnesota mailboxes.

The department says about 1.3 million Minnesotans will file returns by the April 15 deadline.

The 1966 tax return will be basically the same as last year's, consisting of two pages to be filled in by the taxpayer.

Murder Charge Against Man in Death of Wife

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The body of Mrs. Nancy Mitchell, 34, was found in her burning home, but an autopsy has indicated she died of strangulation, not fire.

Her husband, Dr. John R. Mitchell, a 44-year old chiropractor, was charged Tuesday with first degree murder.

Mitchell had fled the home, with the couple's four-year old daughter, Nan, after the fire broke out about 2:30 a.m. Monday.

The Hennepin County medical examiner's office said no smoke was found in the woman's lungs, indicating she died before the fire started in the couple's Minneapolis home.

The examiner's office said she suffered a fractured hyoid bone in the throat, indicating death by strangulation.

The county attorney's office said the case would go to a grand jury, probably Jan. 10.

Arraignment was set for today for Mitchell in Municipal Court. The county attorney's office said $15,000 bond would be recommended.

Quake Rocks North Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—A violent earthquake rocked northern Chile early today and heavy casualties were feared in the nitrate port of Talait, the center of the upheaval.

The Chilean news agency Orbe said 80 per cent of the buildings in Talait were destroyed but the number of dead and injured was not known yet. The town, 700 miles north of Santiago, had a population of about 6,000.

The earth shocks were felt over a wide area and were reported strongest in the provinces of Tarapaca and Antofagasta.

The quake was registered in Santiago at 3:20 a.m. EST and by the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey in Washington 10 minutes later. The latter said its observatory at Honolulu had issued a warning of a possible seismic sea wave.

DODGE TOWN TAXES

DODGE, Wis. — William Jerecek, treasurer of the Town of Dodge, announced he will be at Hoesley's office in Dodge every Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in January and February to collect taxes. All personal property taxes must be paid by Feb. 28. All real estate taxes must be paid by the same date unless paid in two equal installments; then the other half must be paid by July 31. Jerecek announced that half of real estate taxes may be postponed provided the tax is over $20; otherwise the entire tax must be paid.

PILOT, LOCKMASTER

Four Engineers, Employees Retiring

One Winona man and four area men are among 21 long-term employees of the St. Paul District Army Corps of Engineers who are retiring this month.

They are Arnold W. Larson, 460 Minnesota St.; Roger J. Fenton and Edward E. Sweasy, both of Trempealeau, Wis., and Andrew J. Giverson Jr. and Laurits H. Giverson, both of Fountain City, Wis. SWEASY has had 36 years of federal service, all with the Corps on the locks and dams. He has been lockmaster at No. 6, Trempealeau, since November 1955.

ANDREW J. GIVERSEN JR. commenced work in the St. Paul District as deckhand in 1929 and through progressive advancements on various floating plant units attained the position of pilot on the dredge William A. Thompson in 1956, in which capacity he has served since that time. In addition to his regular duties as pilot he was frequently assigned the responsibility of directing such operations as major repairs to lock and dam structures, construction of submerged weirs, flood emergency work and acting master of the dredge Thompson for extended periods of time. He was recipient of the Special Act Award in 1965.

LAURITS H. GIVERSEN began his career with the Corps of Engineers in 1934 and has held various positions on floating plant units, most of which was spent as construction inspector (dredging) in the construction-operations division. He has received several commendations, including two sustained superior performance awards and a special act award. LARSON is retiring from his position of construction inspector (dredging) in the St. Paul District after 33 years of service, all with the Corps of Engineers. From 1929 to 1945 he served in positions on floating plant units and lock and dam structures. He was then advanced to his present position of inspector on the dredge William A. Thompson.

FENTON has held various positions since 1937 on the locks and dams. Since 1945 he served as lock and dam operator at No. 6, Trempealeau.

Personal Matter, Hamilton Says of Ties With Lynda

The actor and Miss Johnson held a news conference Tuesday at the home of former actress Marie Oberon, their hostess.

Minneapolis Marine Killed in Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pfc. Renold W. Peterson, son of Mrs. Eleanor L. Spencer, Minneapolis, has been killed in action in the Vietnam war, the Defense Department reported Tuesday. Two Marines—one from Minneapolis and one from South Dakota—were also included on the latest casualty list.

The Pentagon identified the victims as Lance Cpl. John H. Reeves of Minneapolis and listed his primary next of kin as Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Reeves, Winnipeg, Man., and Lance Cpl. Paul O. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Evans, Sioux Falls, S.D.

Royals Top Pistons in Tuesday Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nine in and nine out — that was the story of the Cincinnati Royals' latest success in the National Basketball Association. The Royals made nine straight field goals at the start of the second period, while Detroit missed its first nine, and rolled to 131-123 victory.

In the only other game, Len Wilkens tipped in a rebound with two seconds left to give the St. Louis Hawks a 113-111 victory over the Baltimore Bullets.

Don Ohl of Baltimore had tied the game by sinking a free throw and a basket with 10 seconds remaining.

10-DAY LAYOFF SHOWS ON REDMEN

St. Mary's Readies For Ambrose Tourney

St. Mary's Basketball Coach Ken Wilgert scheduled two workouts today for his Redmen charges after a rather sluggish practice on Tuesday. "I hope we can polish up a bit today," Wilgert said. "After a ten-day layoff, you have to expect that."

Early Thursday, the Redmen will depart for Davenport, Iowa, and the St. Ambrose holiday tournament. Besides the Winona and Davenport schools, the tourney brings together Lincoln University of Jefferson City, Mo., and Illinois Wesleyan.

All signs point to the eagles from Missouri in the tourney, but anything can happen.

Wilgert indicated earlier that he plans to do some experimenting with his bench. "I haven't had much of a chance to see what some of the players can do," he said. "We'll use as many of them as possible during the tournament and the Loras (Dubuque) game afterward."

St. Mary's goes into the tourney with a 1-3 record.

The Redmen coach plans to go with the experienced five at the start of the St. Ambrose game Thursday.

These will be 6-4 center George Hoder, 6-3 Tom Keenan and 6-1 Dennis Ludden at forwards and three-year veteran, 6-1 Jerry Sauter, and 6-1 southpaw Jim Buffo at the guard spots.

Other performers that have seen action in St. Mary's games this year include:

Mike Halloran, 6-5 forward-center; 6-0 guard Bob Soucek, 5-9 guard John Ryan, 6-3 forward Tim Bajakas, 6-3 forward Dan Pelowski, 5-11 guard Bill Browne and 6-2 forward John Ruddy.

In games this season, the Redmen toppled Loras of Dubuque 74-56, and dropped games to Stevens Point, Wis., Oshkosh, Wis., and St. Thomas.

Randolph, Pine Island Win — Eye Snowstorm

PINE ISLAND, Minn. — With the threat of cancellation hanging over the head of tonight's final round of games in the Goodhue Holiday Tournament, Randolph and Pine Island had a chance to bask in the glory of opening round victories Tuesday night.

Randolph, with four starters on the bench with fouls, managed to pull out a 75-72 overtime triumph over Elgin in the first game. Then Pine Island dumped Mazeppa 59-38 in the nightcap.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP game is scheduled for 9 p.m. tonight, with the consolation set for 7 p.m. It is possible the games may have to be played Thursday night because of heavy snow.

Trinity Advances At Adrian

ADRIAN, Minn. — Rollingstone Holy Trinity advanced to the semi-finals of the six-team Adrian Holiday tournament Tuesday night, whipping Currie Immaculate Heart of Mary 65-61 in the tournament's first game.

In the other first-round contest, undefeated Adrian St. Adrian topped Wilmont 60-42.

In tonight's semifinals, Rollingstone plays Wabasso St. Anna at 7 p.m. with Adrian taking on Edgerton at 8:30 p.m. The winners of those two games will play in Thursday's 9 p.m. championship game. The losers will play off for third place at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, while Currie and Wilmont, Tuesday night's losers, meet at 6 p.m. for the consolation crown.

RANDOLPH 75 ELGIN 72

Two free throws by reserve Randolph Rick Gergen with 30 seconds left in the overtime wrapped up a 75-72 victory over Elgin Tuesday night.

Randolph had come from seven points back, 54-47, at the end of three quarters to tie it 70-70 at the end of regulation.

Then, with four regulars on the bench via the foul route, Gergen connected to win it.

Bob Sathre and Dave Gergen, Rick's older brother, had 20 points each for Randolph, which boasts a 4-3 record this year. Duane Norstad and Dennis Murray each bagged 12.

ELGIN ALSO got balanced scoring with 17 points coming from both Steve Richardson and Arvin Holtegaard. Larry Shones and Fred Lorentson had 16 points apiece.

PINE ISLAND 59 MAZEPPA 38

Pine Island's man-to-man defense, led by Ron Ruegg, stifled Mazeppa and the Islanders went on to take a 59-38 semifinal victory Tuesday night.

Ruegg held Mazeppa's scoring Clayton Copple to only nine points as Pine Island sprinted away to quarter leads of 15-6, 26-15 and 44-27.

ED SHANKS, a 5-8 guard, led Pine Island in rebounding with 12 and in scoring with 17 points. Don Millering, averaging close to 20 points a game, was held to eight by Mazeppa's collapsing zone defense. In all, 11 Pine Island players scored.

Mazeppa, winless in six starts this year, got 11 from Mike Hofstad.

30 STRAIGHT CLEAN FRAMES

Gordy Fakler Fires 648 Tuesday Night

Gordy Fakler came up with 30 straight clean frames Tuesday night and a whopping 648 series to lead bowlers in the city.

Fakler, rolling for Hot Fish Shop in the Classic League at the Winona Athletic Club, smashed games of 245 — 195 — 208 for his big series, leading his team to 1-015-2,952.

Fakler started with a double in his 245 game, then got two spares, a turkey, another spare, another turkey and eight on his final ball. Six spares and four strikes graced his second game, and then in the final game Fakler had a scorching 200 game, alternating strikes and spares, until the ninth frame when he doubled.

Hugh Orphan also had a 607 series in the loop.

Another big 600 came from the American League at Westgate Bowl. Bob Dennis rocked 643 to spark his Hauser Art Glass team to 2,941. Hildebrandt Decorating had 1,053 behind Bob Brandes' 234 game.

Phyllis Thureley led the distaff side on the pin toppling scene, getting a 539 for Sammy's in the Ladies City circuit at Hal-Rod Lanes. Lenore Klage had 210-519 for Sammy's, also, but Golden Frog took team honors with 919-2,624.

Irene Janikowski hit 538, Anne Beranek 516, Doris Bay 514, Esther Pozanc 512 and Betty Schoonover 505.

RED MEN: Steve Belisle led Paffrath's Paints to 972-2,822 with his 199-530 in the Monday

Nite League.

HAL-ROD: Lang's Bar tagged 1,012-2,844 in the Four-City loop behind Kiki Williamson's 593. Ray Thrane had 224 for F. A. Krause.

In the Park-Rec Jr. Boys league Nick Thrane hit 205-324 for Pin Dusters, while Kool Kats slapped 604-1,195.

Wildcats grabbed group honors in the Park Rec Jr. Girls League with 601-1,114. Sharon Brang laced 157-255 for Jolly Rollers.

WESTGATE: John Sanstead was one fill short of hitting the 600 circle in the National League, but John had to settle for 224-590 for the Waddell & Reed team. Cozy Corner spanked 1-029-2,919.

In the Hiawatha circuit Carroll Cobenson led Midland to 1,018-2,790 with his 216 game. Vern Burke had 578 for Tri-County Electric.

Milan Ends Cannon Falls Win Streak

GOODHUE, Minn. — Cannon Falls appeared to be on its way to its eighth straight victory this season Tuesday night, but the roof fell in during the last six minutes and the Bombers were knocked from the ranks of the unbeaten in the first round of the Goodhue Holiday Tournament.

A towering quintet from Milan did the trick with a 63-61 score, rallying from a 10-point deficit early in the fourth quarter.

IN THE other first round game Appleton, now 5-1 this year, nipped Goodhue 67-62.

The winners are scheduled to meet in tonight's championship game at 9 p.m. with the consolation tilt set for 7 p.m.

MILAN 63 CANNON FALLS 61

Cannon Falls charged to a nine-point halftime lead and then appeared to be coasting but Milan, with 6-7 Lee Haugen on the bench, caught fire in the final six minutes to upset the Bombers 63-61 and hand them their first loss of the season in eight starts.

Cannon Falls led by 10 early in the fourth period but, paradoxically, when Haugen picked up his fourth foul Milan surged to close the gap. The big Milan center returned to the game with two minutes to play and picked off some key rebounds that preserved the victory.

Bob Jorgenson, a 6-3 guard, was the key to the Milan victory. Jorgenson bagged 27 points including a driving layup with 30 seconds to play that proved to be the clincher. Doug Johnson had 14 and Bruce Larson 10 for the winners.

Mick Goudy, whose shot with two seconds left spun in and then out of the bucket, finished with 23 for Cannon Falls. Bob Stenson hit 13 and Steve Loven 10.

APPLETON 67 GOODHUE 62
Defending tournament champion Appleton broke away from a 54-54 tie in the fourth quarter to down host Goodhue 67-62 Tuesday night.

Goodhue's inability to handle the Appleton press and to rebound during a three-minute span in the fourth quarter told the tale.

Appleton turned three straight Goodhue mechanical errors in layups, and connected on four straight free throws while being fouled after grabbing offensive rebounds to pull away.

Larry Teske netted 21 for Appleton. Goodhue's Gary Lodermer hit 28 to lead all scorers.

BALANCE PAYS OFF, TOO

Dick Peterson Leads Area Cage Scorers

Every coach likes to have a big scorer or two on his team. But when you don't have that individual standout, you have to make with what you have.

And there are a trio of interesting cases in point in the area his year, namely Cannon Falls, Osseo, and Chatfield.

CHATFIELD, loser of only one game this year and currently leading the Maple Leaf Conference race, doesn't have a scorer in the top ten, while Cannon Falls, undefeated going into a holiday tournament at Goodhue Tuesday night, has only one scorer in the top ten of the Hiawatha Valley Conference and he, Mick Goudy, ranks no better than seventh.

Osseo also has one player in the top ten division in the Dairyland Conference, Ken Jacobsen, with a 15.9 average. But the mark is no better than 10th in the high scoring conference. Despite this, the Chiefs have won their first seven games.

So balance may be the key to success.

But then, again, there are some individuals around the area who are having outstanding seasons.

DICK Peterson, Lanesboro's six-foot forward, for instance, Peterson took over the area scoring lead during the past two weeks, boosting his average to 22.3 points. The second leading scorer in the area also comes from the Maple Leaf Conference. He is Harmony's 5-11 guard, Bill Barrett with a 21.8 average.

In all, there are 14 players in the area with averages of over 20-points-per-game. Third on the scoring list is Claremont's 6-5 center, Jerry Warner, with a 21.6 mark, while Roger Tollefson of Elva-Strum is netting 21.5 a game. Mike Woll, on the strength of a 36-point performance Friday night, boosted his average to 21.1 for Rushford, and Holmen's 6-4 Dave Evenson is hitting at a 21-point clip.

Several of the top scorers in the area will be in action tonight.

IN THE Pine Island Holiday

tournament, Pine Island boasts Don Millering with a 20.7 average. The consolation game in that tournament is tonight at 7 p.m., while the championship is slated for 9 p.m.

Goodhue has Gary Lodermer, a 20.5 scorer, in its own tournament which also includes Cannon Falls. The consolation and championship are 7 and 9 p.m., respectively, tonight.

Barrett will be in action when Harmony takes part in the Lewiston tournament finals.

At Alma, where the first half of the Alma-Independence tournament will take place tonight, the Rivermen have the two top scorers in the West Central conference in the persons of Curt Youngbauer (20.9) and Bob Parker (19.1). Independence, also in the tournament, boasts a solid one-two punch in Mike Kulig, 18.3, and Bill Skroch, 15.9.

THE Elva-Strum doubleheader, besides Tollefson, can boast the presence of Durand's Dan Langlois, a 19.3 average scorer.

In games outside of tournament action tonight, Peterson will put his prolific scoring ability on the line when Lanesboro entertains Mabel-Canton, and Kenyon, led by Jeff Albright with a 19.7 average, is at Faribault.

Ramblers, Hawks Rated in State's Best Prep Squads

Winona Cotter held tightly to the No. 4 spot in Catholic prep ratings this week by the Austin Daily Herald. The Ramblers proved they were tough Tuesday night when they soundly whipped Chippewa Falls McDonnell to advance to the finals of their own holiday tournament.

Winona High School's Winhawks are knotted for seventh place with Northfield in Sports Editor John Kolb's ratings. The Hawks are 6-1 and Northfield 5-1 overall this season.

Edina (7-0) and Duluth Central (6-0) are rated one-two in the public schools while Rochester Lourdes (7-0) and St.

Paul St. Thomas (7-2) hold top spots in Catholic ratings.
